Central West Women's Health Centre provides support for women to empower themselves with the aim of having their individual needs met.

This Support Service (also known as Case Management) is flexible and guided by the needs and choices of the woman.

Some ways we can help include:

- Support to access appropriate mainstream and intensive services
- Collaborative work with other involved services
- Advocacy
- Assistance with obtaining appropriate information and avenues to reach desired outcomes.
- Assistance with forms, safety planning, and other personal skill development.
